

EWPA INCIDENT REPORTING DATA – OCTOBER 2024 TO JANUARY 2025

The Mobile Elevating Work Platform (MEWP) industry in New Zealand is committed to enhancing safety and sustainability by gathering and analysing data on MEWP-related incidents through the EWPA's Incident Reporting Portal. We launched our Incident reporting tool in October 2024 and are able to present the below information to date.

From 01 October 2024 up until 31 January 2025

Machine Part

- Manufacturing fault
- Basket/platform
- Controls
- Chassis incl Welds
- Motive power
- Electrical
- Hydraulics
- Travel parts (wheels, hubs, steering, drive motors)
- Transporting

Operator Issue

- Licensing/competency
- Risk assessment/job planning
- Machine selection
- Site setup (traffic management, isolation, spotter, under, at, overhead hazards)
- Pre-Op check
- Levelling/stabilising
- Travelling
- Raising/lowering
- Reaching
- Restraint
- Shut down and stowage

Environment

- Risk assessment/job planning
- Machine selection
- Site setup (traffic management, isolation, spotter, under, at, overhead hazards)

Inspection & Maintenance Issue

- Not part of a registration program (RI, CBIP)
- Missed during inspection
- Repair Issue
- Fault found at inspection
- Inspection detail

Injury, near miss or death

